

To whom it may concern,

International House Galway designed and delivered English language programmes for our students and teacher training workshops for our teachers and we were very happy with the result - the programmes were well prepared and delivered, the tutors were very engaging and knowledgeable and we all got a lot from the experience, so much so that we have invited them to return this year to deliver another programme.

Faithfully Yours,

Farnaz Memari

Director of Studies

Avid Academy of English

Farnazmemari

